STATE CONVENTION OF FRENCH SOCIETIES

Delegates Arriving For Annual Sesns Today and Wednesday.

Many delegates for the convention of the French Societies in Connecticut arrived here Monday evening. The total number expected is about 200. The convention will be held at St. Mary's hall today and Wednesday.

The convention will open this (Tuesday) morning with a solemn high mass at St. Mary's 'church at 9 o'clock. After the services, the delegates will form and parade up Valley street to Main, down Main to Union (in front of the Thread Mill office), up Union to Jackson and up Jackson to Valey, where the parade will disband.

The convention will open at 10 o'-clock, with roll call and the afternoon session will open at 1.30 with an address by Mayor D. P. Dunn, and then the real business of the conven-tion will commence.

then the real business of the convention will commence.

An entertainment will be held in the opera house in the evening. There will be several musical selections and many prominent French people will speak. A banquet at the Center Street armory, in Guarde Florimond rooms, will be given the delegates.

The Wednesday session will commence at 10 o'clock, following' a requiem high mass at St. Mary's church for the souls of deceased members. The first session will be held in the afternoon during which executive officers for the year will be elected and the meeting place next year will be decided upon.

Mayor Dunn Sees Boys at Ayer
While in Ayer, Mass., at Camp Devens, Sunday, Mayor Dunn saw nearly all of the local men who have gone there. He said that the men have already acquired a military bearing and they are now dressed in their uniforms. The men say they like the life. It is rather chilly, but this draw-back will be removed when the steam heating plant is put into commission, Arthur McQuillian is the only one who is an officer, being mess sergeant for the Third Battalion Depot Brigade. Many of the local men will be transferred to a Massachusetts regiment at Westfield to bring the regiment up to fighting strength. Mayor Dunn Sees Boys at Ayer words.

During the evening every man will be presented with a fountain pen, something which will induce the men to write home, which is the best thing they could do.

Thursday morning there will be no parade, as many of the men do not want any such thing. Instead they will come down as they please and probably all of Willimantic will be down to the depot to see them off.

Captain Fenton has tried to have the Plainfield entraining done away with, going directly from this city, but it is impossible.

Ernest Chesbro who is the chairman of the finance committee, reports that everybody seen thus far is very willing to give, and already $89 has been given.
